

Locations Sampled Using Camera Traps Within Kalabakan Forest Reserve, Malaysian Borneo

FIGURE 1: A map showing the location of camera traps used for sampling mammals in the Kalabakan forest reserve. The map shows the distribution of the sites and the altitude of the area which has been compensated for in the positioning. Also, rivers are marked on along with the boundaries of the study area for the project.

